A Woman Commits Suleide with Morphine, Owing to Worldly Trouble and Mental Derangement-The Facts Brought Out at the Coroner's Inquest.

Last Sunday an inquest was held at No. 150 Third street, near Exchange, upon the body of a white woman named Mary E. Ray-mer. Esquire G. D. Crockett held the inquest, when the following startling facts were discovered: Mrs. Raymer came here some few years since from Helena, Arkansas, and a few months ago started a boardinghouse on Monroe street, near Second. She got into trouble with her next-door neighbor, Mrs. Van Brogel, formerly Miss Lizzie Burnette, Van Brogel, formerly Miss Lizzi who also kept a boardinghouse. A controversy arose which resulted in Mrs. Van Brogel bringing suit against Mrs. Raymer for defamation of character. Chief-of-Police Athy interfered in behalf of Mrs. Raymer, who was a good, religious woman, and the matter was nushed up for the time being, but the trouble broke out again in the shape of a suit at the office of Esquire Fleming, in which Mrs. Raymer was induced to sign the which Mrs. Raymer was induced to sign the ollowing libel paper:

MEMPHIS, TENN., February 11, 1879. I hereby admit that I have circulated, and caused to be circulated, reports against the character of Mrs. Lizzie Van Brogel, which I now admit to be untrue and for which there was no foundation whatever. This information I derived from other parties, not chowing abything myself.

MRS. M. E. RAYMER. Sworn to and subscribed before me, this day and ear above written.

THOS. FLEMING. Of course some man was at the bottom of he above proceedings, one of those inter medlers in vexatious law suits, or who for other reasons, induced the poor distracted and half demented woman to sign a paper which could do no possible injury in any mat-ter except to satisfy the animosity which existed on the other side.

THE INQUEST. When the inquest was called by Esquire Crockett, a number of witnesses were sworn and testified as follows:
DR. WILLIAM HEWITT

was swom and testified as follows: I was called to see Mrs. Baymer Saturday night about the o'clock, and found her suffering from an overdose of morphine; she said she had taken the morphine in the morning, and then took an Elmwood car; she was found by some friends, near Elmwood and was by them taken to their house; Dr. Vance was called to see her, but later in the day the case was turned over to Dr. Black; when I first came last night she ('Irs. Raymer) commenced to tell me why she was in her present condition; she told me that she had kept a boardingbouse on Monros street; that she had been in trouble with one of her neighbors, and that she had been so persecuted by a lavyer, M. F. Ball; that she determined to desiroy her life; she said that she had taken seventy-five cents worth of morphine; I learned from some one present in the room that she had obtained it at the drag store corner of Main and Beale streets; I remained with her until about one o'clock Sanday morning, when I found she was dying, and I then left; she had all the symptoms of having taken morphine; I am satisfied that she died from the effects of morphine administered by her own hands.

THE DEAD WOMAN. Mrs. Raymer was between forty and fifty years of age. She was an honest, hard working and poor woman, one who was always worried and troubled in migd, until she had almost become demented. She was a member of the Baptist church, and was respected by her acquaintances and friends. Her character was irreproachable. On Saturday evening last she was found in South Memphis, near Eimwood cemetery, wandering about in a dazed condition, and was conveyed to her residence on Third street. She had purchased the morphine at a drug-store on the corner of Main and Beale streets, and took a street-car for Elmwood cemeters, as if to die there; but before she reached the tion, took her home. EDITORS APPEAL-A great injustice has ON Friday, April 25, 1879, Mr. John F. Black, brother of R. J. Black, clerk of the chancery court, of this city, died of pneumonia, at his late residence in Haywood county, Tennessee, in his thirty-firet year.

J. G. Everest, of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad, is in our city. He lays before us a complete guide to what he claims is the most economical and healthful regions of America.—Wisconsin and Minnesota. We are authorized to say that the Illinois Central railroad will have special tickets on sale here, at low rates, to the above section. John Chamberlain, passenger agent, at 287 Main street, will give you information. Go see him; it will pay.

Frank Grax, the clever purser of the Memphis Thicater, in which capacity he is seting for the Chickasaw Pinafore cith, we say that the rice of the presence and altered to her business, and not a copy of that paper, and offered me ten dollars to allow it to worry her. She declared she much have a copy of that paper, and offered me ten dotlars to get it for her. I did call on Mrs. Van Brogel at her house, stated my business to her, and she positively declined to give it up. We parted on angry terms. I sued Mrs. Van Brogel and obtained a judgment against her for fitteen dollars, from which she appealed. On that trial I compelled her, by an order of court, to produce that document, and thus it was I obtained a copy of it. From that day to this I have not seen nor spoken to Mrs. Van Brogel, nor are we on speaking terms now. I have not seen nor spoken to Mrs. Raymer in two months. She has called at the office to see me, but I have since refused to talk with her, as she talked like a crazy woman. I have never seen Mrs. Raymer's daughter; was never at their house but onceon the invitation of Mrs. Haymer—and then only about five minutes, although Mrs. Raymer frequently invited me to come. I de not practice law; never have. When Mrs. Van Brogel got mad because I sued her, they both went before the grand jury and tried to indict me, but falled, on this same matter. Any money that Mrs. Raymer paid on the ludgment against Mrs. Van Brogel I had no hand in adjusting. It was paid properly in court and a receipt given for it by the deputy sheriff, although she tood them she wanted to pay it to me. I refused even to see or speak to her on that or any other subject for the past two months. How she obtained the original paper I know not, but presume it was fixed between the two women themselves. I shoererly regret the sad event, which has brought trouble into my own house as well as hers. Would to God I could undo the little part played by me in the drama! Her bereaved daughter has my most profound sympathy m her beveavement. But, before high Heaven, I am as innocent of her death as any man or woman in Menaphis; for when I wrote that statement I honestly believed I was doing a kind act for both. In a few days I will be able to establish my innocence, so that Miss Raymer

A Stock Speculator's Last Speculation San Francisco, April 28 .- W. F. Casselbohm, first assistant city treasurer, committed suicide this afternoon by shooting himself through the head. He left a note addressed o the coroner, stating that he had been led into stock speculation by Alexander Austin, late city tax-collector, who also committed suicide, being a defaulter to a large amount; that he had lost thirty-five thousand dollars in speculating, and had used twenty thousand dollars of the city's money to cover margins and being unable to make it good saw no resort but to follow Austin's example; having always bore a good name he could not bear the disgrace of a public exposure and prose cution. Experts have been recently examining the city treasurer's accounts, but have no yet reported. The deceased was a native of Germany, aged fifty years.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

Meeting on Yesterday-A Lot of Business Transacted-The Investigating Committee Reports on Printing Blds and Charges Against the Secretary of the Council.

The legislative council met yesterday at three o'clock. Present: D. T. Porter, W. W. Guy, John Overton, jr., M. Burke, C. W. Goyer and W. N. Brown. A communication of the engineer was read, asking if one thousand five hundred dollars could not be raised by subscription to pave Madison street from Main to Front street. On motion of Mr. Galloway, it was referred to a committee of three to investigate and ascertain if the subscription could be raised.

The chair appointed Messrs. Galloway, Gunn and Brown. The special committee appointed to inves-The special committee appointed to investigate the Herald charges, made at the last meeting, submitted the following report:

We, the committee appointed by order of your board April 22, 1879, to take into consideration the protest of the Herald publishing company against awarding the mortnary report to Messrs, Price, Jones & Co., beg leave to submit the following report: After giving notice to the Herald company and to Mr. Pullen, your committee met this day, and after listening to explanations of Mr. D. W. Coan in substantiation of the charges, and reading the amidavits of Price, Jones & Co., S. C. Toof, N. Meriwether, John D. Huhn and B. F. Price, we are of the unanimous opinion that the contract has been properly awarded to Price, Jones & Co., and that neither Mr. Pullen or any other party connected with the making or opening of bids has been guilty of any wrong, and we think that the charges have grown out of a misapprehension of the facts. Respectfully submitted, JNO. OVERTON, JR., W. W. GUY, C. W. GOYER, Committee.

On motion of Mr. Burke, the report of the committee was received and adopted. The engineer's report on the petition of G. K. Weatherford and others was received and ordered filed. The committee on dump-wagons asked for and was granted further time. The ordinance on sewer pipes passed sec ond and final rending.

The petition of W. H. Bettis & Co. was presented, and, on motion of Mr. Gunn, was granted, and was referred to Messrs. Guy, Goyer and Galloway, to set apart the space and agree upon the terms of the lease. The petition of sundry grain merchants was read, asking that the price for weighing be reduced from one and one half to one cen per sack.

On motion of Mr. Brown, the petition was refused. The petition of M. C. Kennedy was also refused. The petition of Richard Proctor was re ferred to the president and attorney. The petition of sundry parties, asking that the dump be not built at the foot of Beale street. On motion, the contract with Mr. Bettis was annulled, provided it costs not exceeding fifty dollars.

Mr. Alley submitted a proposition to furnish a floating dump for one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month. On motion it was referred to Meser Barke, Brown, Gunn and Overton. The bids for covering the markethouse were opened.

The contract for paving the levee south Union street was awarded to M. Larkin & Co.

The council then adjourned until to-morrow at three o'clock.

Worms are a miserable affliction, found in most families, and not unfrequently fatal in their effects. Therefore delay not, but im-mediately ask your druggist for "Dr. C.
